FAIR

And So We Came . . .

We Came To Search, To Emulate, To Perfect,
But Most of All We Came Because We Desired To Become Something a Little Better Than Our Past.
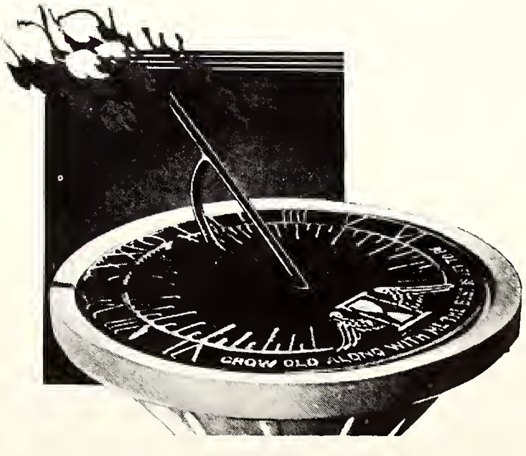
. . . We Came To Progress.

As a Child, We Took Our First Step . . .

Stepping High, Stepping Forward,

We Attempted To Grasp, To Correlate, To Comprehend. Sometimes the Massive Weight of Knowledge Pressed Upon Us Until We Thought We Were Being Crushed.



GROW OLD ALONG WITH ME THE BEST

And Then . . .

In This Moment of Hush, the Pieces Began To Fuse Together — We Suddenly Understood — We Knew. And for a Brief Interim, We Were at Peace With Ourselves. But Only for a Moment;

70

Four years ago, the class of 1966 arrived on campus to be greeted by the sight of progress. A progress that has continued as we have kept stride.

As we leave, our undergraduate education completed, we see two new dormitories completed, a beautiful fine arts building and cafeteria nearly completed, and plans finished for continued expansion of Fairmont State College. But the work is not yet finished, for a college must constantly grow and expand. Our College is doing just this.

We, the 1966 MOUND staff, dedicate this yearbook not to just one person, but to all of those who have helped to make this campus the living monument which has arisen from their faith in the school, its administration, and above all, its students.

Homecoming, with its mad rush, feverish excitement — marked by smokers and teas and pageantry — crowned by our win over Bethany and the dance held that night.

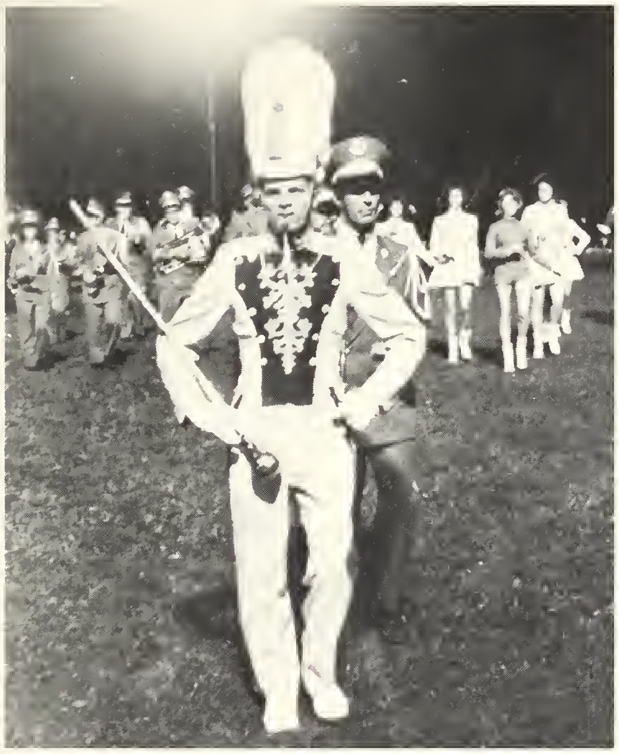
Drum Major and Majorettes



Drum Major: James L. Dugan

The performances of the Fairmont State College Marching Band, under the direction of Mr. Donald Hamilton, could not have been complete without our drum major and majorettes to lead the band's march down the field.

MAJORETTES: Sonya Hughes, Louise Carberry, Barbara Strother, Karen Lucas, Pat Mahalick, Janet Kull, Sue Duvall, Sue Warder, Judy Prozzillo, Judy Hoskinson, Sharon Brown.

Concert Band

The Fairmont State College Bands, conducted by Mr. Donald Hamilton and Mr. Wesley Gragson, are open to all Fairmont State students who wish to further their musical training and continue their instrumental experience.

The purpose of the organization is to acquaint students with a wide variety of band music and to develop such techniques as sight reading, interpretation, self-expression, and general musicianship.

Collegiates

The Collegiates and the Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Miss Frances Moody, entertain several times during the school year with their beautifully blended voices.

Falcons Race To Best Record in Years, 8-1 Season

A corps of remarkable seniors and a bevy of talented underclassmen led the Fairmont State Fighting Falcons to the best record they have put away since 1959 — a fine 8-1 record.

The highlight of the conference season for the Falcons was a hard fought victory over West Virginia Tech. Butch Clayton and a strong defense were too much for Tech as they succumbed 14-13, due to missing an extra point. Winning the game awarded Fairmont the conference championship for the second consecutive year.

In a non-conference game the following week, which was Homecoming, Fairmont was matched against a vaunted Bethany team. Bethany had handed the Falcons their only defeat during the previous season. An eager, aggressive, Falcon eleven took the field seeking to wipe the blot from their record and to do some blotting in return.

After the kickoff, Bethany was never in the game. Fairmont annihilated the Bisons with a nine touchdown attack and a ferocious defense which stymied the scoring efforts of Bethany. The game was a remarkable display of cooperation and teamwork as eight players scored for Fairmont.

George Clayton was tremendous! Butch threw five touchdown passes and scored one touchdown himself as he turned in the finest performance of his career. Besides passing for 289 yards, Butch ran for another 100 yards.

The aggressive defense held the Bethany offense to 164 yards by intercepting fives passes and stifling the Bison's ground attack. Two of these interceptions were turned into Fairmont scores by the alert defenders.

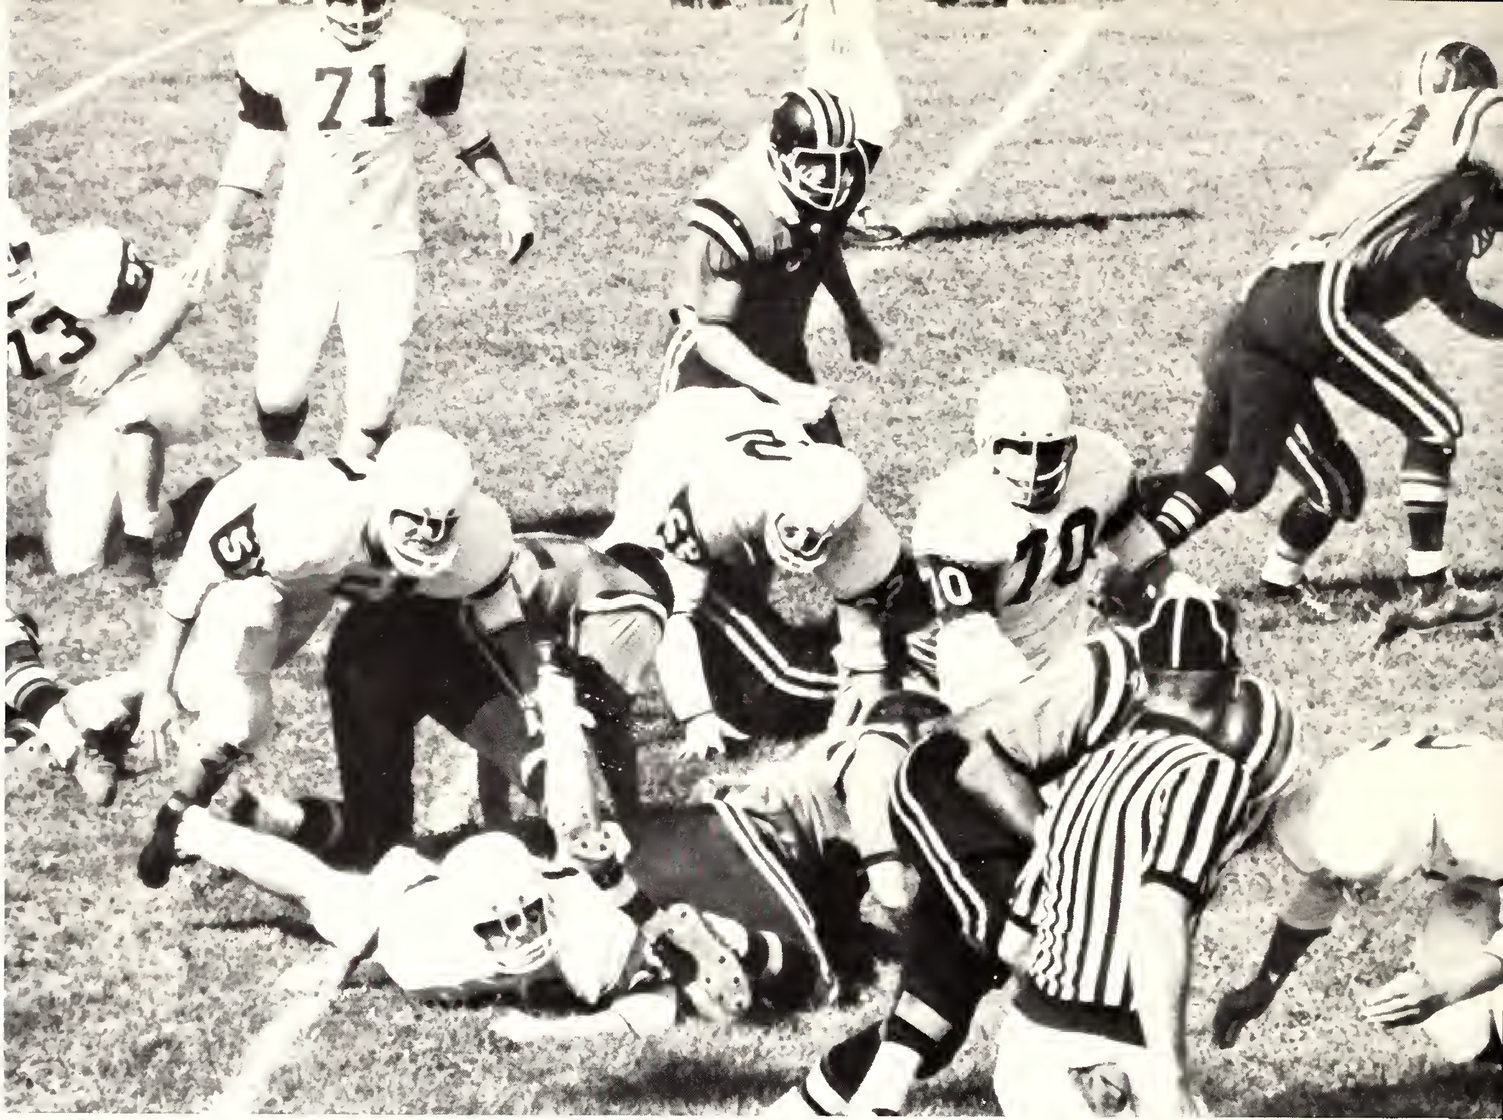
A sad and surprised Bethany crew returned home with a 59-6 shellacking on their otherwise perfect record.

The following week the Falcon's played their final regular season game against West Liberty, an ever dangerous opponent. However, the Fairmont attack continued to move and the Hilltoppers were defeated 35-6.

The fighting Falcons represented Fairmont State College in the post season NAIA playoff game at Minneapolis. In bone-chilling weather and on a frozen field, the Falcons were defeated 28-7. Although they played hard and well, the Falcons were unable to overcome the frigid weather and a tough St. John's team.

Even though such senior stalwarts as Louis Ribel, George Clayton, Roy Jackson, Ron Gregan, and others will be missed, they are leaving behind them a solid core around which to build next year's Fighting Falcons. As a team, their record stands witness.

With the help of Clayton and Jackson, Ellsworth picks up yardage.



Mayle gets set for the tackle. Other Falcons are Martray, Brown, Sloan, Williams, Youngblood, and Ribel.

Martin Bartic breaks away from two defenders.

Coaches Receive Honors

Coach Harold S. (Deacon) Duvall and Coach Joe Retton were named WVIAC Coach of the Year and Runner-up, respectively. The announcement marks the first time that coaches from the same school have been so honored.

Basketball — A Year of Rebuilding

The 1965-66 basketball season was one of rebuilding and experimenting for the Falcons. Having only one of the starting five, Dave Miller, back from last season's Kansas City team, Coach Retton had to work with untried but skillful material. Despite the handicaps that the team faced throughout the year, they achieved an outstanding record of 23-4 of which Fairmont State fans are justly proud.

Although the basketballers were eliminated from the WVIAC tournament at Charleston by a strong West Virginia Wesleyan team, the Falcons will all be back next season with a much more wise and experienced team.

The Student Council is the executive board of the student government organization, consisting of five student body officers, all class presidents, one member elected by the honorary and professional organizations, one member elected by the non-fraternity group and one faculty representative appointed by the President of Fairmont State College.

One of the principle assignments of the Student Council is to meet at the beginning of each semester to determine the allocation of the student activity funds among the various campus activities and organizations. The budgets prepared are then published so that all students may know for what purposes their fees are being used.
